Once upon a time there was a sensible, level-headed Straight Line...
...who was hopelessly in love
...with a Dot.

She was exquisite, he thought. Beautiful,
And of perfect shape. But alas, the Dot had eyes only for the wild and unkempt squiggle...

...who to her seemed gay, carefree, and uninhibited.
Besides, she thought, what could be more boring than a Line?
A Line has no depth, no breadth of character--just endless sameness.
So the squiggle gloated and chortled over his triumph.
The Line was crushed. It wasn't fair--after all,
he was one of the pillars of his school.

Administration

L. D. Horrigan

Superintendent

This was a year filled with problems and decisions since the plan for reorganization of the school district was voted in by the people. Superintendent Horrigan and the Board of Education worked many long and weary hours on the changes to be made. A new school board will assume its duties on the first of July. With the increase in the school population, plans are now being formulated for a new senior high school building.

In spite of these material problems, the Superintendent and the Board still hold one objective above all--to give the best education to all and to secure the most able teachers to do the job.

Sitting: J. C. Shirley, Mrs. Ruth Flittie, president, Mrs. R. N. Masson, Dr. Stanley Sundet. Standing: L. D. Horrigan, Charles Webbenhurst, Dr. E. L. Kratochvil

Board of Education

Charles Webbenhurst Business Manager

Planning for the cost of the budget for the school system, managing all expenses in connection with equipment, and supervising the maintenance system are some of the duties of the Business Manager.

Virgil A. Bell
Senior High Principal

With the challenge of a changing modern curriculum, the ever increasing enrollment, and the lack of classroom space as constant problems, Mr. Bell still has time for a friendly chat or conference with a student.

Setting up the curriculum and advising and guiding the pre-high school students is only part of Mr. Johnson's work. He keeps abreast with changes in junior high school policies and curriculum content, and keeps in touch with his teachers. Yet he has time to be a friend to each student.

Floyd A. Johnson

Junior High Principal

James Culey
Counselor

As a counselor his duties are many. He maintains and adds to a collection of information concerning each student. He conducts tests which determine interests, aptitudes, and abilities of students, and provides occupational information. He gives personal counsel and also keeps in contact with graduates. His work has far reaching effects as well as immediate influences on many.

Government by the Students

Highlight of the year's activities for the Student Council was the adoption of a new student body Constitution embodying a petition system of electing student officers. Above, looking on as Ron Aho signs the document, is the council's constitutional committee. Seated are Tom Klinkel, Ron, and Ormond Smythe, chairman. Standing are James Manning, James Finn, Craig Larson and Ray Horn.

The Student Council, composed of representatives of the various homerooms, provides liason between students and faculty. Under the leadership of Student Body President Ron Aho, Council members attended the East River Student Council Convention, helped formulate school policy, and conducted student body elections in which Don Behrend and Lyle Gadda were named president and vice president for 1964-65.

Boys' State

The seven junior delegates to Boys' State held in Aberdeen May 31-June 6, were Wade Walstrom, Zoell Colburn, Tom DeBoise, Lyle Gadda, Gerald Sloat, Tom Tritle, and Robert Friefeld. Alternates were Pat Skubic, James Simons, Richard Fuller, David Ellis, Kermit Bortnem, George Rickerson, and Steve Buholz. A mythical 51st state was erected with elected officials, city councils, and state legislatures. Robert Friefeld was elected Speaker of the House.

Girls' State

Brookings High sent three delegates to Girls' State held June 7-13 at Mitchell: Nancy Arndt, Donita Hill, and Patsy Rawson. Alternates were Barbara Fine, Dinah Mannerud, and Ruth Balo. During the week at Girls' State, delegates established a model state and learned about state and local governments. Girls' State is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

After three long years in a prisoner-of-war camp, Larry Benson is coming home. Many preparations are being made. As the expected Larry steps out of the car it is a total stranger that walks toward the house.

Many problems arise in the household as Freda, Larry's mother, has the strangest feeling that this is actually her son. Sam, Larry's father, being more realistic, orders him out of the house.

After much abuse from everyone, the pseudo-Larry tells his story to the astonished family. When Larry Benson and his friend were fighting, Larry was shot and died in his friend's arms. While they were together Larry had told his friend all about his family, feelings, and friends. After Larry's death his friend unconsciously assumes the role of Larry Benson, believing he is actually Larry. Freda and Sam, realizing now the troubled condition of the boy, and wanting to help him, take him into the family circle.

So the poor lovelorn Line decided to try a new approach.
He began to develop his creative abilities.

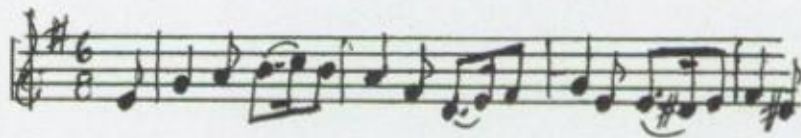

When he felt he was ready, he hurried to show the Dot.
... She was impressed...

...and for a time it appeared that he had won her heart.

They were a lovely couple!

"Fly with me to the Riviera!" he begged her. "We shall make beautiful music together!"

Music

And together... they played...

He's just loud. He's still plain, predictable, and uninteresting.
Come on. Let's go have a ball---

Red and Black Day proved to be a remarkable one in the way of the costumes that appeared. At least the girls don't always wear their hair like that, and Bonnie is usually lacking her "devilish" nature.

Coronation Night, emceed by Tom Klinkel, brought with it a tense anticipation which was mirrored on the faces of all present. Thunderous applause accompanied the coronation of Janice Kortan and Mark Sanderson by the 1963 Bobcat Day Royalty, Bill Gamble and Paula Arndt, as Lord and Lady of Bobcat Day 1964. Attendants to Lady Janice were Betty Anderson and Randi Holden. Lord Mark was attended by Marlyn Erickson and David Sogn.

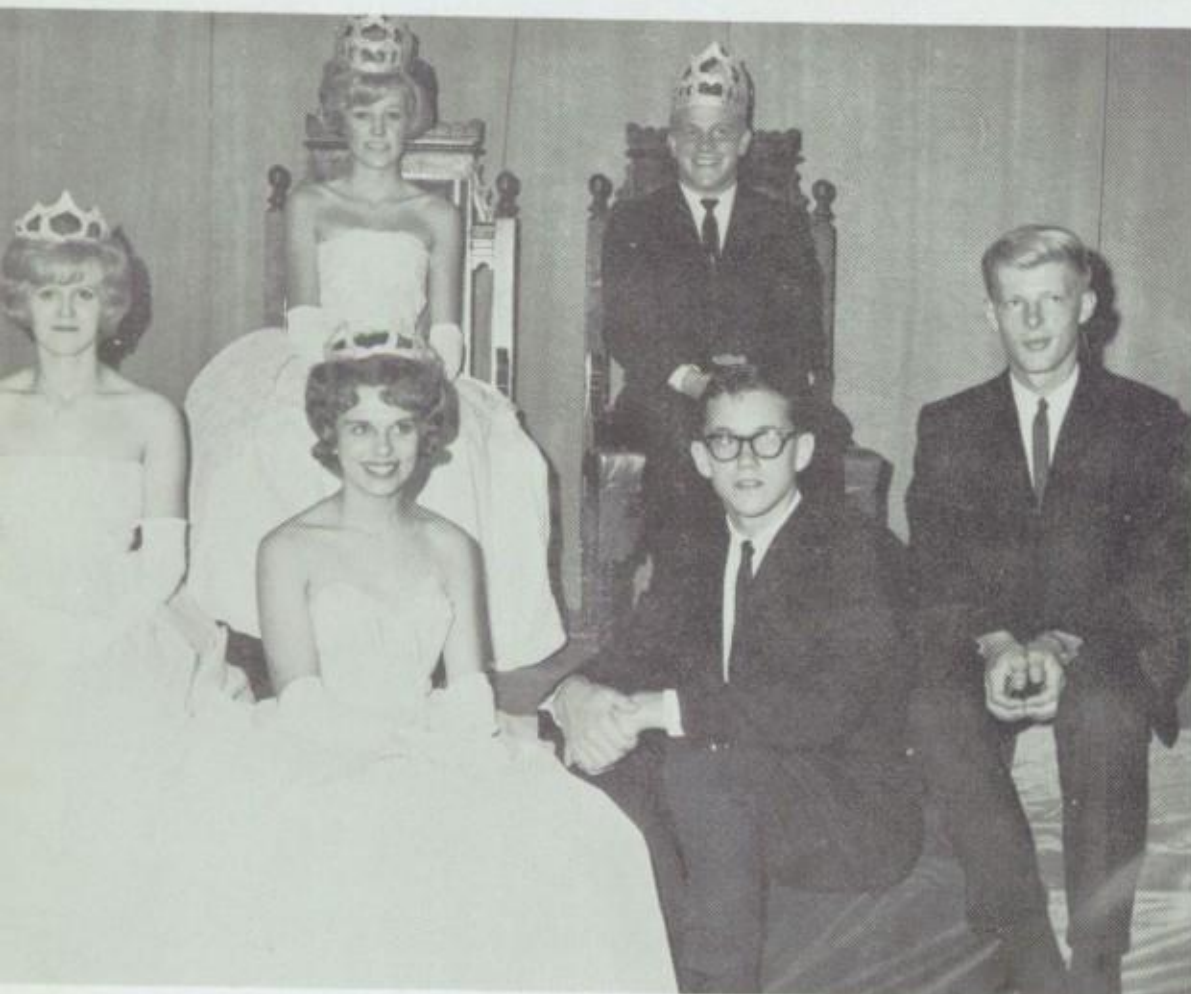

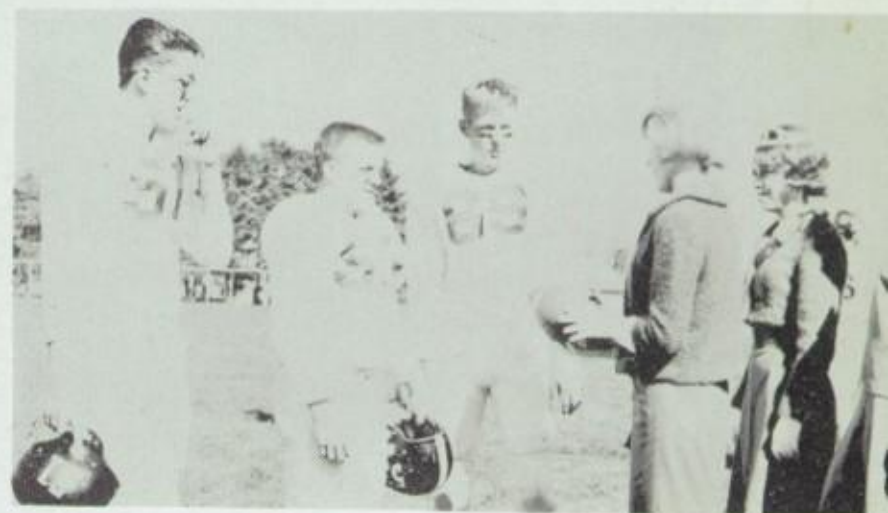

A lively and entertaining floor show portrayed how the Bobcat football team would crush the Madison Bulldogs in the gridiron contest Friday. After the conclusion of the indoor festivities, the Royalty and enthused crowd moved on to a snake dance, a pepfest on Main Street, and a bonfire pep rally led by the cheerleaders.

Due to a wet Bobcat Field, the Homecoming football game with the Madison Bulldogs was held at the State Field. After Lady Janice and her attendants presented the football to Mark, Marlyn, and Dave, the Bobcats went on to win the game, 38-0.

In the evening, a good-sized crowd of students and alumni entered the beautifully decorated auditorium for the Bobcat Dance. Judging by the happy looks of the dancers, "a good time was had by all."

Bonnie Lievan won, for the third consecutive year, grand championship honors at the Regional Science Fair and qualified to present her project to the National Science Fair held May 6-9 in Baltimore, Maryland. Her project this year was entitled: "Use of Seed Extract and Free Radical Initiator AIBN in Determining Plant Radiosensitivity." Bonnie also attended the Junior Academy of Science held in Sioux Falls and was one of the two allowed to present their papers to the Senior Academy.

Ray Horn attended the AAAS and National Junior Academy of Science meeting in Cleveland, Ohio, in late December. Ray presented his paper entitled "Study of the Growth of Sorghum Before and During Pollination" at the meeting. Ray won the right to participate at the national meeting last April after he presented his paper to the Senior Academy of Science at the School of Mines in Rapid City. This is the first time a BHS student has won this honor.

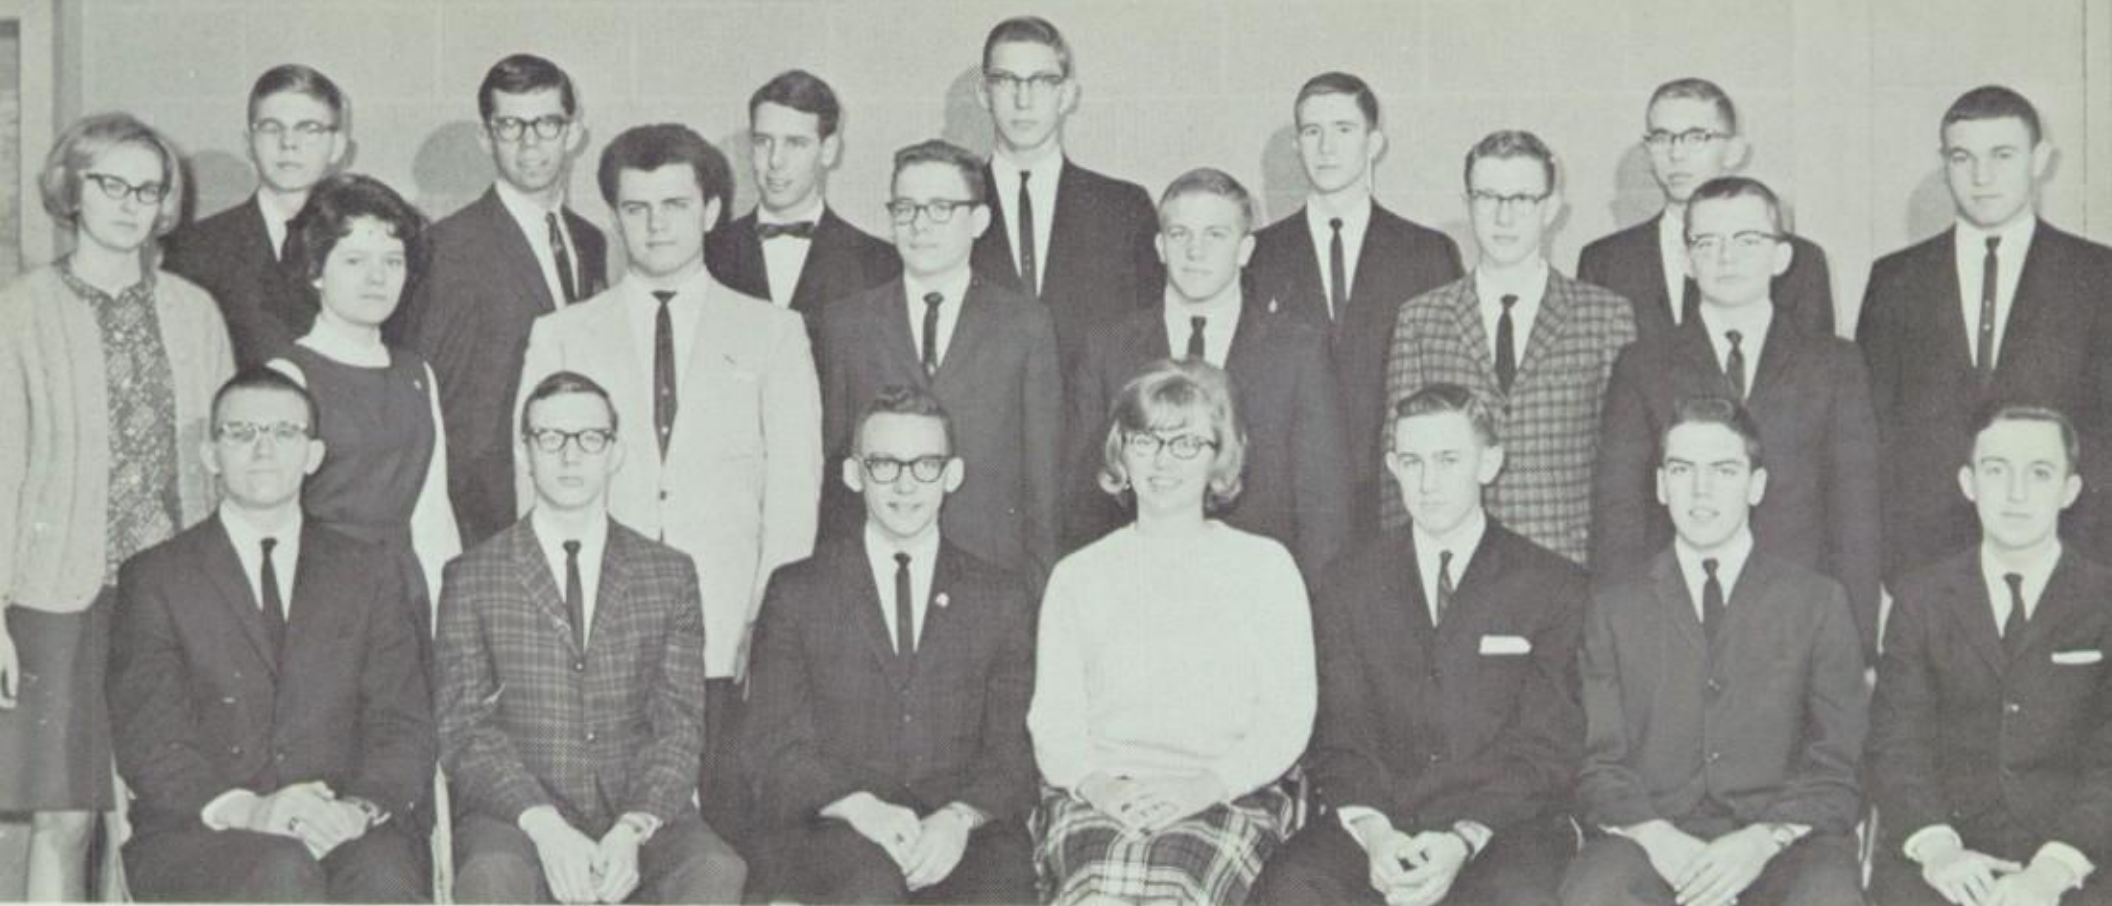

David Beatty is shown below with a general purpose electronic counter that he designed and built himself. David, together with Harvey Svec, won first place in the South Dakota Junior Engineers Technical Society competition. Harvey worked mainly on the chassis and panel with the circuit design done by Beatty. As a result of his work, Dave won a four year Alumni Science Scholarship at South Dakota State University.

Kinetic Club Jets

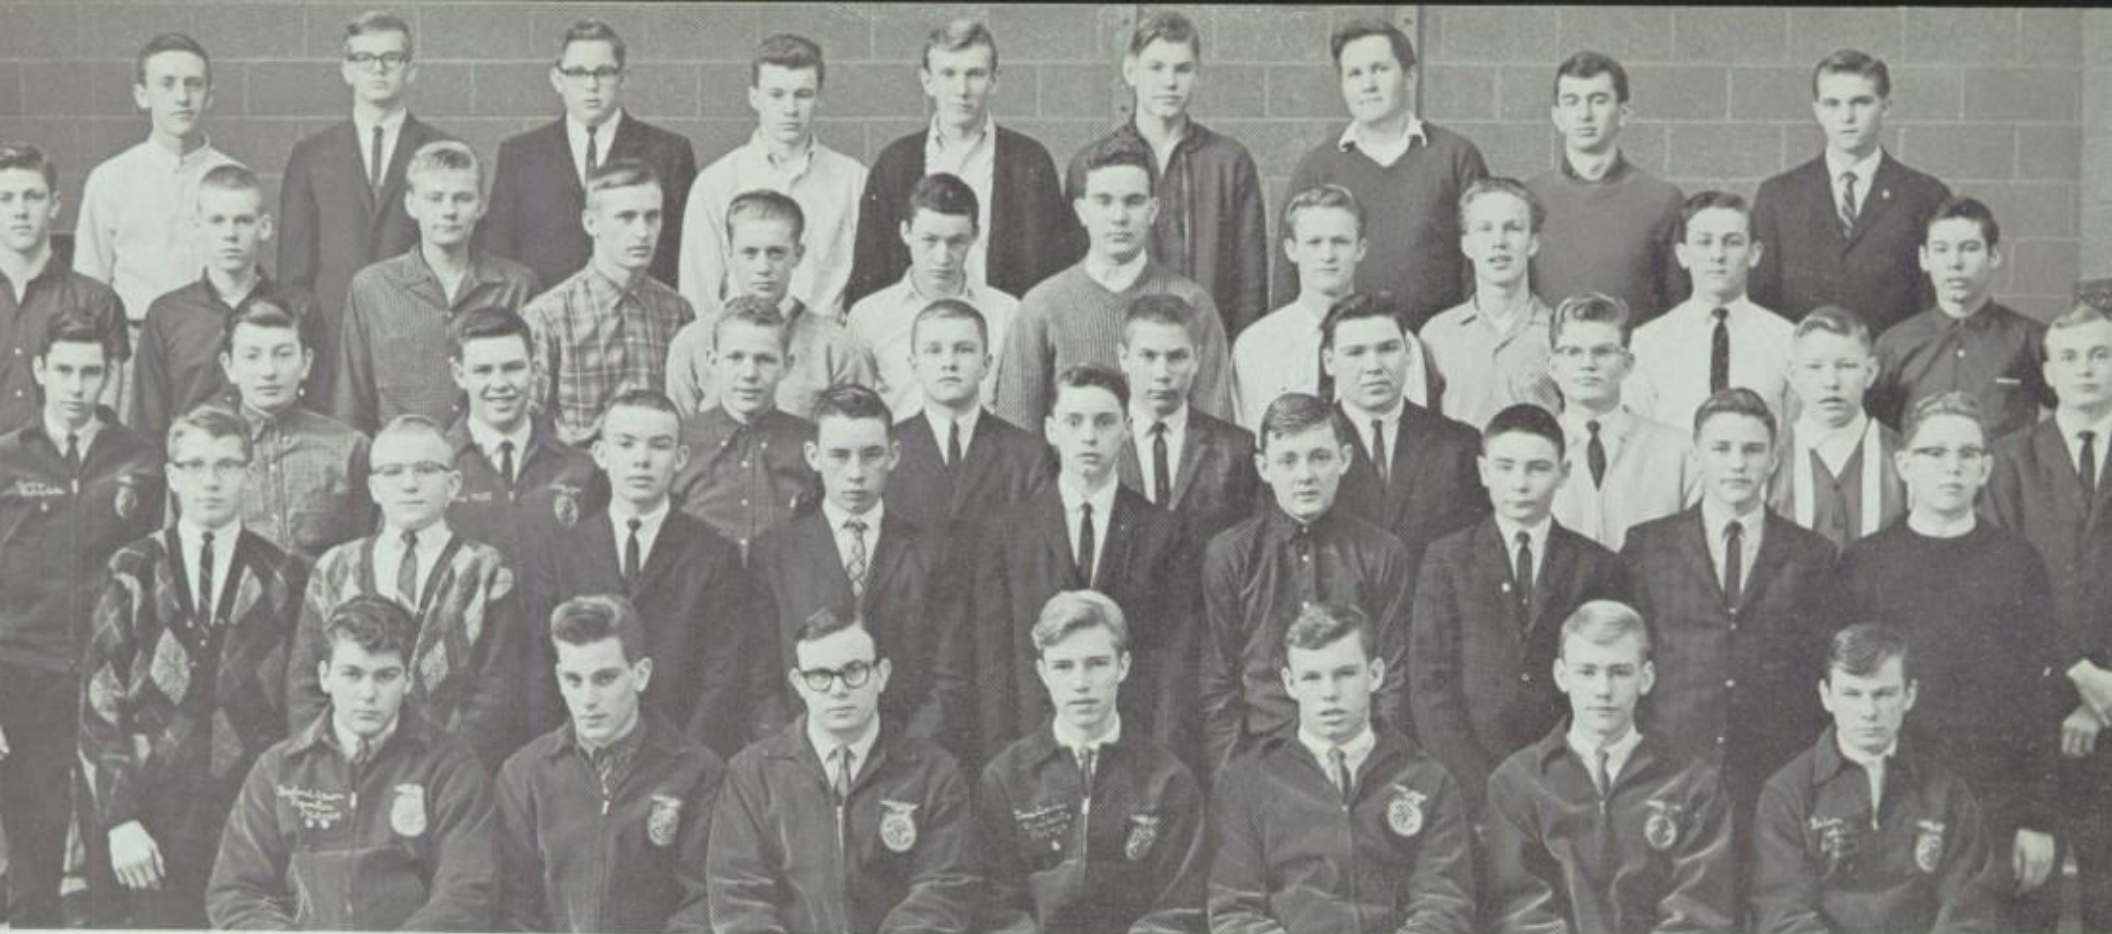

Membership in Kinetic Club requires a probing interest in science and a willingness to work on the part of the students. Each of the members is required to initiate and organize a science project and to present progress reports at the regular meetings of the club. On the less-serious side, the club sponsors the Kinetic Klub Karnival in which all BHS clubs may participate.

Junior Engineers Technical Society allows those students who have an interest in the fields of engineering to develop that interest and to understand the requirements of the profession. In contrast to the projects of the Kinetic Club members, JETS projects are orientated toward application of scientific principles, rather than toward pure research. Guy O. Karnes is the adviser for both Kinetic Club and JETS.

Future Farmers of America

Activities of the chapter began with a district officers meeting at Bryant, at which the officers took second place in the Ritual Contest. Gerald Sloat as a member of the Poultry Team attended the National Convention in Kansas City where the team won a Silver Emblem Plaque. Frank Zemlicka and Galen Roberts were delegates at this convention. In December the chapter honored their parents at a banquet where honorary degrees were given to two fathers. Selling magazines subscriptions financed the activities of the year. It was at the State Convention that a Gold Emblem Award was received for the Safe Corn Harvest Program conducted during corn picking time. The chapter also received a Superior Chapter Award. Members attended judging schools at DeSmet, Madison, Sioux City, Sioux Falls, and Volga. During the first week in June the senior members and Mr. Kleinsasser vacationed in the Black Hills.

Interesting its members in teaching as a career is the purpose of F. T. A. The year's activities began with a potluck supper honoring the junior and senior advisers at which Mallissa McCauley of Monrovia, Liberia was the featured speaker. The club again sponsored the ever-popular jail at the Kinetic Klub Karnival. To finance their many activities, the club also sold paperback books in the halls after school.

Delta Kappa Gamma and the Kiwanians sponsored a teaching clinic at S.D.S. U. which several of the members attended. The field of Special Education was explained by Miss Helena Papritz. During the year each girl observed and taught the grade of her choice. Karen Sterud was awarded the A.A.U.W. scholarship for teaching. Mrs. Idah B. Alseth, free lance writer and educator, spoke to the club at the spring banquet.

To gain a further insight into the nursing field, both junior and senior girls joined FNA. They toured the Children's Home and the School for the Deaf in Sioux Falls. Some participated in the Civil Defense Program. As a project a punching bag was made for the Guidance Center.

A cookie and candy Booth was sponsored at the Kinetic Klub Karnival to raise money for club activities. A few members attended the State Convention held in Huron in the spring. Miss Halverson held a preschool roundup in the spring at which some of the girls assisted.

Future Homemakers

...and among homemakers,
he was known as Clothes Line

"Discovering myself and my worth to others" was the motto of F.H.A. this year with each monthly program emphasizing personal values. Several girls attended the State F.H.A. Convention in Huron. The club sponsored a Christmas semi-formal dance, the Mistletoe Ball. As a money making project, the girls sold ice cream bars at the Kinetic Klub Karnival and the club contributed ten dollars to the State F.H.A. Scholarship Fund. During F.H.A. Week, the members took a rose to each classroom. This year the club also inaugurated "Red and White Day," which the members observed by wearing the club colors. The mothers were honored at a candlelight installation held in May. Virginia Gastler received the Betty Crocker Future Homemaker Award.

Cue Club

In the Theatre, he was soon so famous...

To become a member of Cue Club, a student must have been a member of the play cast or a committee chairman in either his junior or senior year or have been a committee member for the two years.

During the year the members took turns showing their talent in numerous skits and songs. After the matinee of the senior class play the club gave a potluck supper for the members of the play cast and committees. They also sponsored a dart-throwing booth at the Kinetic Klub Karnival. The year closed with a potluck supper held for the initiation of new club members and the election of new officers for the coming year.

Latin Club

Delving into the history of Roman Culture, the Latin Club completed a year of variety. Highlights of some of the meetings included the crowning of the king and queen of the Roman Saturnalia and playing bingo with Latin words. In April a panel discussed the values of Latin and a skit was given depicting events in Roman history for the benefit of the eighth grade guests. A banquet highlighted the May meeting. Roman costumes were displayed by members and guests who partook of the Roman type food.

Spanish Club

Furthering the ability to speak Spanish and learning more about Spanish-speaking people and their culture was greatly advanced through conversations with guests with first-hand knowledge of the language and the customs. Christmas was celebrated with paintings and pinatas. A Fish Pond was the project at the Kinetic Klub Karnival. The Spanish Fiesta proved to be the club's outstanding event. The year was closed with a pot luck supper to honor the seniors and to install the newly elected officers of the year.

Winning local honors in declamation were Ray Horn in oratory, Suzanne Ness in humorous, Ormond Smythe in dramatic and Ann Westbrook in poetry. Reaching the State contest in Pierre, Ann and Ray were rated Excellent and Ormond Superior.

Shortly before year's end, several of Mrs. Horn's students journeyed to Sioux Falls for the District NFL tournament, where Cheryl Kohl placed second in oratorical interpretation and Ann Westbrook and Merri Lynn Schoepf both reached finals in dramatic interpretation.

Declamation

Junior high school declamation students, also coached by Mrs. Horn, received several superior ratings at contests in Milbank and Watertown. Superior winners at Milbank were Susan Anderson, Mary Moulton, Mark Madson, Scott Leonard, Alan Leibel, and James Kohler. At Watertown, Donna Sloat, Gay Miller, Stewart Walz, Rick Walstrom, Priscilla Lewis, John Richards, Mark Madson, Gail Scholten, Scott Leonard and Betty Maxwell were rated Superior.

Shown with the trophies they accumulated during the year are Ray Horn, Ron Aho, Ormond Smythe and Tom Klinkel.

Though failing to win either the State Tournament or the District NFL contest, the debaters accumulated several State and NFL championships in individual events, thus earning their way into national competition. Tom Klinkel and Ray Horn were NFL and State champions, respectively, in extemporaneous speaking, making BHS the first South Dakota school to capture both championships in the same year using different individuals. Ormond Smythe won the State championship in original oratory, while the squad placed third at State in debate.

Debating the question of medical care under social security, the squad as a whole won two out of every three debates, while the nine-member varsity squad won at the rate of eighty percent.

At the spring awards banquet, Ormond Smythe was named Most Valuable Debater and Cheryl Kohl Most Improved Debater. The "Clod" award was presented to Wendy Friefeld.

Besides initiating five freshmen and one debate coach, NFL members distinguished themselves in a variety of ways. Tom Klinkel won the South Dakota district NFL championship in extemporaneous speaking, while he and the other members of the chapter won second place in debate and sweepstakes at the district tournament. The squad accumulated four double-ruby awards and eight Degrees of Distinction. At year's end, Ormond Smythe held the highest total of NFL points in the nation--669--while Ray Horn ranked eleventh nationally with 600 points, and Ron Aho ranked forty-first with 546 points.

Betty Maxwell and Barbara Nelson are filing and putting books away.

To further develop their knowledge in library work, six girls assisted Miss Akre. For four years of service, Diane Hoffman received a guard for her pin. Kathy Schuld received a gold pin for three years of service. The other members received one year certificates. National Library Week and Book Week were observed with posters and displays. They held meetings at noon once a month.

The Girls' Athletic Association program this year consisted of seven major sports. The year's activities were divided into four units. In the fall, the girls played speedball. The second unit included tumbling and basketball climaxed by the basketball All-Star game played before the student body. The Matcats, the advanced tumblers, performed at two basketball games. Next followed volley ball and badminton. Patty Hoy and Cheryl Lee were the finalists in the Badminton Tournament. In the spring, track and softball were the sports. A track team was formed which entered inter-scholastic meets.

Broboca Staff

SUSAN HVISTENDAHL, BARBARA CARLEY: EDITORS

Deadlines and headlines are the dominants for the Broboca staff, which is composed of volunteers from the student body. Hardworking and indefatigable, the staff and editors labor late on publication days to edit the newspaper. Working as a unit, they bring us a current report of the outstanding news of BHS. "Will the following reporters please check the assignment sheet," was a familiar announcement each week. Succeeding Susan and Barb as editors are Zoe Ann Dorsey and Cheryl Ness.

Each of the division editors picked a committee to help them with their assignments. The number of students in each committee varied with the number needed by each editor. After graduation the students spent hours in Miss Helland's room working on their pages. After the first week the confusion lessened and the staff worked diligently.

Monogram Club

This year the Monogram Club came from almost nonexistence the year before to one of the more active clubs in the school. Membership in this select organization is attained when a boy earns a varsity letter in one of the five major sports: Football, Cross Country, Basketball, Wrestling, or Track. An oath of allegiance to the high principles of the club and to the rigid traits of an athlete is also required.

This year's activities included among other things, the holding of the annual Varsity-Faculty Basketball game and the sponsoring of a Valentine's Day Sweetheart Dance.

Coach Harry "Bill" Gibbons' gridgers compiled a 4-4 season and a 3-3 conference record as they battled their way to fourth position in the conference standing. Following two warm weeks of pre-season workouts, the Bobcats met defeat at the hands of a well-organized Luverne Cardinal team, but bounced back the week after with a decisive win over the Sisseton Redmen.

This game was highlighted by two of the season's longest scoring plays, a 70-yard pass interception and a 92-yard run. ESD Conference action opened with the Cats at Yankton. There the Bobcat football pattern for the year was spelled out when after leading in the first half, a third quarter letdown allowed the opponents to rally. Still stinging from the loss at Yankton, the scrappy and determined Bobcats smothered a weak Madison squad on Homecoming. The next BHS foe was a smooth running Huron Tiger offensive. Bob Bozied, ace helmsman, steered the team to its second ESD win with an outstanding scoring effort. The Brookings defense met its test against Mitchell in a victorious romp. A superior running attack allowed the Aberdeen Golden Eagles to overcome the Cats; and in the final test of the season the Watertown Arrows, top ranked in the state, easily outclassed the Bobcats.

With underclassmen carrying much of the load, the thinclads won their duals with Pipestone and Madison, finished fourth in an unofficial ESD run, and placed fourteenth in the State Meet.

Cagers

Following two of the strongest teams in Bobcat history, Coach Don Mohlenhoff's cagers were hampered by graduation and inexperience. The team posted an over-all record of 8-11 while recording a 4-10 mark in the ESD Conference. After a strong start in which the Cats rolled over the Custer Wildcats and the Belle Fourche Broncs, they opened conference play with two quick losses to the Warriors of Sioux Falls Washington and the Madison Bulldogs. Smarting from those two setbacks, the ferocious Felines outpointed the Yankton Bucks and the Flandreau Fliers in away contests. Almost cyclic in nature, the Bobcats lost their next encounters with the Watertown Arrows and the Aberdeen Golden Eagles. After squeezing by the Huron Tigers, the team met defeat at the hands of a strong Mitchell Kernel crew. In the latter half of conference hardcourt action, Brookings was victorious over only the Watertown Arrows and the Huron Tigers.

In Region II, the Cats soundly defeated the Flandreau Indians but lost out to the Sioux Falls Warriors in the final contest.

Eric Bundgaard, freshman starter who finished fourth in the ESD scoring race, was voted most valuable player and Gary Derscheid won the "Hustler" Award.

Marlyn Erickson was elected honorary captain.

In their first season, the BHS grapplers under Coach Harry "Bill" Gibbons showed determination and desire throughout the season. The Bobcats, wrestling against more experienced teams, posted a 3-8 record in finishing seventh in the ESD. The team, dominated by underclassmen, showed potential for a bright future in the wrestling program. The "B" squad ended with a 4-5-1 record.

Cindermen

Hampered by a meager turnout, Bobcat cindermen under Coach Nig Johnson faired well in the season's track outings. Though Brookings wasn't the strongest group of thinclads in the state, it could be said that they were sharp looking with their new track outfits. It was evident from the beginning of the season that the Bobcat's strength lay on the track and not in the field events. Following a dual meet with Watertown, the Cats competed in Watoma Relays. Bobcat relay teams were still trying to find the right combination of members as they captured winning trophies in the 440-yard relay (Semeniuk, D. Kallemeyn, Sundet, Derscheid) and the 880-yard relay (Semeniuk, Hill, Sundet, Derscheid). The next meet, the Flandreau Invitational, the baton men separated for the individual events. Along with sprint power shown by Semeniuk and Derscheid, Dave Kallemeyn nabbed fifth in the low sticks, while vaulter Bob Nemitz soared to fourth in his event. The mile relay (Sundet, Milfs, D. Kallemeyn, Henry) placed second.

With the members of the sprint relays determined (Semeniuk, Sundet, Milfs, Derscheid), the quartet carried the baton to fourth in the quarter mile relay and third in the half mile event at Howard Wood Dakota Relays. Aberdeen Relays proved to be good experience for the foursome as they nabbed third in both the 440-yard and 880-yard relay events. Region sprint power was shown by Semeniuk's and Derscheid's placing in the 100. The half mile quartet sped their way to a Region III record of 1:33.7 as Nemitz placed fourth in the pole vault, Hill captured fifth in the 440-yard run, and the Mile and Sprint Medley relay teams gained fourth place medals. In the State Meet, a faulty baton exchange in the finals disqualified Brookings' 880 relay team, but Semeniuk's triumphs in the 100 and 220 brightened the Bobcats' showing. While Semeniuk fancy-stepped his way to a nifty 9.9 in the century and also copped the furlong, the revamped half mile baton squad (Sundet, Bundgaard, Derscheid, Semeniuk) placed third, the Sprint Medley foursome nabbed fifth and Sundet ran to fifth in the quarter mile. George Semeniuk was elected Honorary Captain as the season terminated.

Golf

The BHS Golf Team, headed by Bob and Tom Tritle (kneelint), Bob Masson and Paul Kelley (standing), began with two early season meets at Watertown. One week later, in the Region III tournament held in Watertown, only Bob Tritle qualified for the state tournament. On Memorial Day, the Bobcats journeyed to Yankton for the ESD Conference Tournament in which they placed fifth, while Kelley tied for fourth position in medalist play.

Tennis

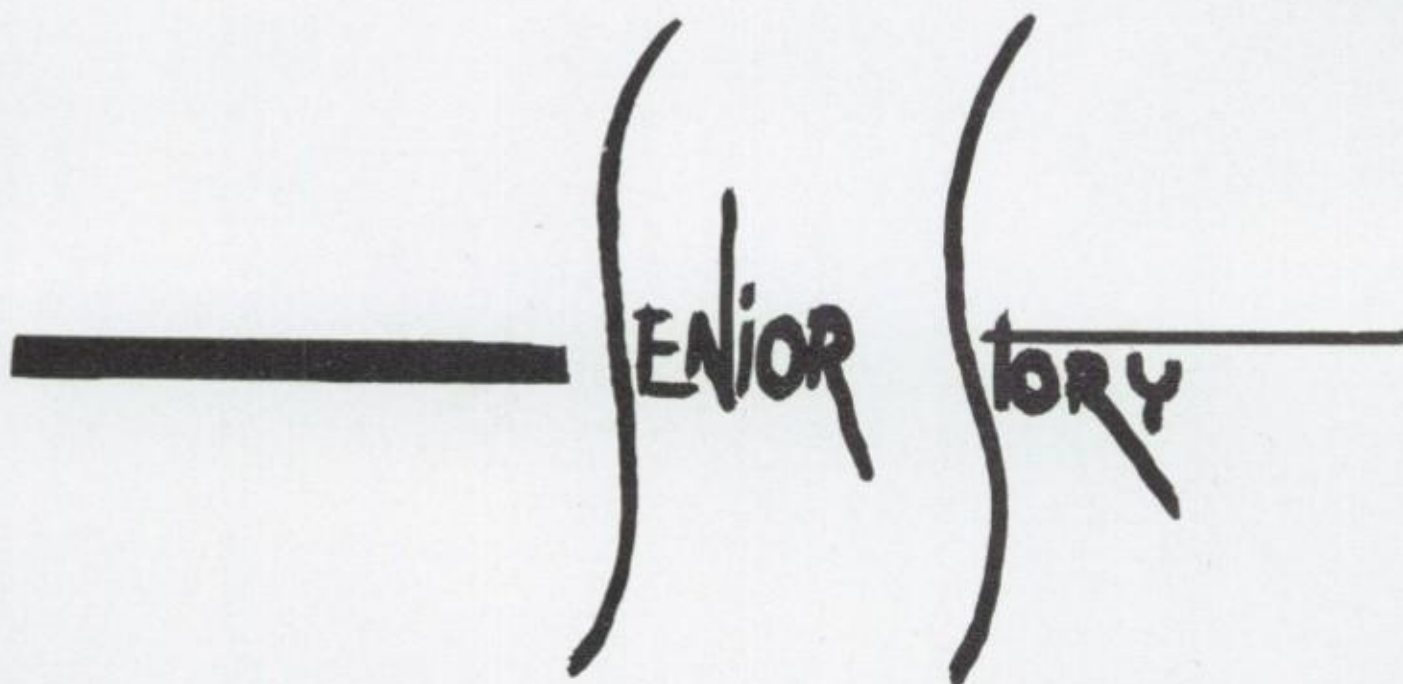

The tennis season proved to be one of the most successful in recent years for the Bobcats. The team, composed of Steve Buholz, Van Fishback, and Chuck Johnson placed first and second in two pre-tournament meets at Watertown. In the state tournament, Brookings captured third place in team rankings. Individually, Fishback was runner-up in singles competition, while Buholz advanced to the quarter finals. The doubles team of Johnson and Fishback were beaten in the semi-finals by Rapid City. One week later, in the ESD Conference Tournament, the Bobcats placed second in team standings.
Fishback captured the singles crown, while Johnson and Fishback advanced to the semifinals.

Daffodil Coleman, a young ingenue, develops a correspondence with an overseas serviceman. Complications arise when Kent Merrill, the soldier, appears at the Coleman household and mistakes Daffy's sister, Dee, for the author of the gay, witty letters he has been receiving. Mr. Coleman finds he must hold three jobs to support his family while Mrs. Coleman knew she would have been a famous artist if she hadn't married the town band master.

When the story is untangled, Mr. Coleman turns into a real composer while Mrs. Coleman becomes a true artist. The teenagers of the family solve their problems when Kent finds Daffy to be the one he loves and Jimmy Carver gets Dee back as his sweetheart.

Meanwhile Cora, the oldest of the children, surprises the whole town and shocks the whole family when she changes from the old-fashioned character she portrays into a beautiful young lady. Her new character results in ridding herself of Ellsworth Norton to marry a doctor.
